

What is Well Crafted?

Well Crafted—Brews + Bands celebrates the quality and diversity of Kentucky's music and craft beer cultures by bringing together a flavorful mix of up-and-coming breweries with favorite local musicians in a venue like no other. Sample brews in the craft beer tent while enjoying live music on two stages! Music, brew and food truck line-ups coming soon!

In celebration of the Shakers' progressive agricultural and conservationist heritage, the event will be organized from the ground up as a low-waste weekend. All proceeds from the event will support Shaker Village's agricultural and environmental student and family education programs. Each year, Shaker Village serves thousands of students and teachers, and with your help, the organization can introduce new, diverse field trips, workshops and activities to reconnect youth with the outdoors.

How much are tickets?

$25 in advance or at door (if available)

5 + Under - Free

Ages 6 + up require a general admission ticket.

What's included in the ticket price?

What time do the gates open?

Festival gates open at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday.

Will security be on site?

Safety is our number one priority. We'll be sure to have plenty of security and a medical staff on hand.

Do you expect a large crowd?

Be understanding of large crowds. Saturday's event is hosted in a large area, however, many folks will be there along with you. Please be prepared to wait, if necessary. Remember, a kind word goes a long way, and your patience is appreciated!

Do I need to bring an ID?

Bring two forms of ID (a drivers license and one other form of identification - credit card, student ID, etc.) with you and be prepared to show it. Access to the Craft Beer Garden will not be allowed without TWO forms of ID. Refunds will not be available for ticket holders who fail to present required identification.

Can I taste beer?

Yes. Craft beers may be purchased tastings and by the glass. We ask festival goers to enjoy the brews but know your limits and act responsibly. Event staff reserves the right to refuse service to anyone at any time. This event features craft beer, but not on its abuse. Please be responsible about your consumption. If you are participating in the Craft Beer Garden have a designated driver or stay the night.

Where do I recycle? What can I compost?

The Festival is an eco-conscious event. Please do your part in helping us reduce our impact! Recycle and reuse all that you can, compost your compostables, and toss what you must. Bins will be available throughout the event.

Can I bring my blanket or lawn chair?

Well Crafted is structured as a walk-about festival and we encourage folks to stand up, move about, and venture throughout the village! There will be a large area for blankets and chairs during the music concerts but you are also welcome to set them up on the outskirts of the main walk-about areas. Please be courteous to your fellow festival-goers and bring low-slung chairs.

Will there be shade?

Well Crafted in the Field will take place in a large, grassy field overlooking the Kentucky countryside. Trees line the perimeter of the field, but be prepared to spend time in direct sun while enjoying the music.

Will food and non-alcoholic drinks be available?

Yes. Food vendors will be on site.

Can I bring my own food or drinks to the event?

No outside food or drinks allowed.

Will there be an ATM on site and can I pay at the door with a credit card?

There is no ATM on site. Credit cards will only be accepted at the door and at the beer garden. Food and merchandise vendors may or may not accept credit cards. Please plan accordingly and bring extra cash.

What if it rains?

The event will take place rain or shine! Please bring rain gear.

Can I leave the festival and return?

We will allow re-entry. As long as you have your wristband, you can exit and re-enter the event site. Wristbands that have been damaged or tampered with will not be accepted.

What if I bought tickets, but will not be able to attend the festival?

Sorry, as stated when purchased, tickets are non-refundable.

Stay Hydrated

Keeping hydrated by drinking plenty of water throughout the day. Kentucky in summer can be hot. It's quite a distance from one end of the village to the other. Considering all the walking, dancing, etc., you'll need to make this a priority.
