

CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL OF THE BLUEGRASS

Weather Information

As we prepare to welcome guests to the Chamber Music Festival of the Bluegrass this Memorial Day Weekend, our team is actively preparing for rainy conditions throughout the weekend.

At this time, Festival concerts and activities are expected to proceed as scheduled.

Umbrellas are welcome and encouraged throughout the weekend.

CONCERTS

Concerts at Meadowview Barn will proceed as scheduled unless severe weather or an active warning requires guests to move to a shelter location. In periods of heavy rain, performances may pause briefly until conditions improve.

If weather conditions impact lawn parking, guests may be directed to park in the Welcome Center Lot and transported via shuttle or golf cart service. Concert start times may be adjusted slightly to allow adequate time for guest transportation.

Friday Patron Gala

If rainy weather is expected Friday evening, the Cocktail Party may relocate inside Meadowview Barn.

If lightning or heavy thunderstorms are expected during the Patron Gala, guests will receive additional instructions following the concert.

If lightning or heavy thunderstorms are expected during the dinner hour, an announcement will be made at the conclusion of the concert and to-go meals will be distributed to guests. Additional follow-up information will be shared after the event.

Sunrise Breakfast

If rainy weather is expected Saturday or Sunday morning, the Sunrise Breakfast may relocate to West Family Cellar. Golf cart transportation will be available if needed.
